

Police Grant Writing

Law Enforcement Grant Writing 101

COURSE WORKBOOK

© 2023 Police Grant Writing LLC

The text and exercises contained herein were developed by the staff of Police Grant Writing LLC. They are licensed to students of Law Enforcement Grant Writing 101 for instructional purposes during the course. Copyright is retained by Police Grant Writing LLC. Reproduction or distribution of this workbook in electronic, print, or other format is expressly prohibited.

Table of Contents

Course Schedule and Agenda	4
About the Instructor	5
The Three Pillars of Successful Grant Writing.....	6
Assembling Your Grants Team	8
Examples of Potential Federal Grantors	10
Examples of Potential Corporate and Foundation Grantors	11
Grants for Police K9s.....	12
Start Here if You have Never Written a Grant	14
Exercise 1: Let’s Write a Grant!	16
Exercise 2: Setting up Email Notifications in Grants.gov	17
Exercise 3: Identifying Forthcoming Funding Opportunities	20
Exercise 4: Dissecting a Grant Solicitation	22
Exercise 5: Collecting Organizational Data	23
Exercise 6: Accessing Academic Research and Literature	26
Exercise 7: PGW Grant Budgeting Tool.....	28
Exercise 8: Creating Figures in Microsoft Excel	30
Exercise 9: Conducting a SWOT Analysis	35

Course Schedule and Agenda

Course Dates: March 13-14, 2023

Times: 8am – 4pm EST

Day 1

Topic	Exercises Completed	Times
Introductions	---	8-8:15am
Grant basics	---	8:15-9:15am
Let's write a grant!	Exercise 1	9:15-10am
Where to find grant opportunities	Exercise 2	10-10:30am
Morning break	---	10:30-11am
Identifying forthcoming funding opportunities	Exercise 3	11-12pm
Lunch	---	12-1pm
Dissecting a grant request for proposals	Exercise 4	1-2:30pm
Collecting organizational data	Exercise 5	2:30-4pm

Day 2

Topic	Exercises Completed	Times
Recap & data progress updates	---	8-8:30am
Accessing academic literature	Exercise 6	8:30 – 9:30am
Budgeting	Exercise 7	9:30 – 10am
Morning break	---	10-10:30am
State grant example	---	10:30-12pm
Lunch	---	12-1pm
Including charts and tables in your proposal	Exercise 8	1-2pm
Timelines and data collection tools	---	2-3:00pm
Federal grant example & SWOT	Exercise 9	3:00-4pm

About the Instructor

Evan is a former New York City Police Officer, the Principal and lead grant writer for Police Grant Writing LLC, and an Associate Professor of Law and Justice Studies at Rowan University. He has been working with and training law enforcement on topics such as grant writing, crime analysis, evidence-based policing, and intelligence-led policing for over 10 years.

Before opening Police Grant Writing, he served as a grant reviewer for the Department of Homeland Security and has reviewed manuscripts for over 25 different criminal justice journals. A New Jersey native, he was contracted by the New Jersey State Police to complete a statewide gang assessment as part of a $2.1 million dollar COPS Anti-Gang Initiative grant in 2016. He is currently working with the Office of Congressman Andy Kim to train and assist officers in Burlington County, New Jersey, to secure grant funding.

He has taught courses internationally to police commanders in countries such as Guatemala, Honduras, El Salvador, and Belize through the Department of State's Bureau of International Narcotics and Law Enforcement Affairs. He has written one book entitled, Foot Patrol: Rethinking the Cornerstone of Policing, served on the editorial board of Police Quarterly, and has published over 15 academic journal articles and book chapters, most involving the evaluation of policing strategies. Evan combines his practical experience and academic knowledge to write grants that are responsive to the solicitation's parameters, supported by data analysis and empirical evidence, and tailored to the client's jurisdictional needs. He is the Instructor for all Police Grant Writing courses.